REPORT ON STATE LEVEL WORKSHOP ON COMMUNITY SERVICES

KLE'S SVS Bellubbi Arts & Commerce College Saundatti has organized one Day State level workshop on community services. The programme started with prayer song by Suprita and Team of BCom final year students. Smt. Afreen A.Hallur delivered a welcome speech and shri. Vijaykumar Meeshi gave a introduction of guests. Dr. C..R.Gudasi in his key note address discussed about inculcation of moral values in education system. He also praised the introduction of community services in the curriculum which teach students to become aware about social problems and helps them to be a part and parcel of our society. The resource person of this workshop Dr B.S. Navi , Registrar Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women 's University, Vijaypur , has elaborately discussed about the structure, importance, and benefits of community services in the curriculum . In his speech he said that community services are essential to the curriculum and it will help any generation of people in need. He also suggests students to indulge themselves in social work and community services. He gave the reasons for doing community service such as

- It will create memorable life experience
- Open doors to opportunities in ones Career.
- Boost psychological and physical wellbeing.

The main motive of community services is to help each other. He suggested students to visit orphanage, old age home, local government schools, protect historical monuments etc.80 Students within and outside institution had participated Prof. Maruti A.dombbar delivered a presidential remark followed by vote of thanks by Smt. Sunandha Hatti. The workshop enlightened the students to serve the community as a whole.
